Principal's Award

Noah oozes personality. He has a smile that lights up any room they walk into. Noah is outgoing, happy, kind, caring and just an all round extraordinary individual.

He works extremely hard at all that he does. Whether it be in the classroom, out on the sports field, or out in the community, Noah is just an absolute work force.

Noah is respectful and considerate of his peers and is a much loved classmate. He works extremely well with all members of our class, regardless of the activity or task, you can guarantee that Noah will work collaboratively with his peers to get the job done. This kid is the definition of team work!

Noah gives everything a go. He is involved in so many different activities around the school and his commitment to these groups is amazing for someone so young. Noah shows a great deal of leadership and gives all our young up and comers in the school someone to aspire to.
