

EBBETT PARK SCHOOL

EXCELLENCE, PRIDE & SPIRIT

It is all happening at EPS!

We are very sad to announce the resignation of Rangi Te Paea. Rangi has been our cleaner for a very long time and we have appreciated everything Rangi and her family have done for our school.

Rangi has been a guardian for Ebbett Park School and now it's time for her to spend more time with her beautiful family.

Rangi's last day will be the 16th of March. We will say farewell as a school on the 23rd of March at our assembly.

Mega 10 Tough Kids Challenge.

We couldn't have had more suitable weather for this years Tough Kid Challenge! The pouring rain didn't stop our students from getting stuck in and enjoying the obstacles and mud. Thank you to our staff for organising the teams and our parents for their support. Most of all well done to our students who showed how tough they are!

Welcome to Ebbett Park School.

We are very lucky to now be a partnership school with EIT. This year we have four fantastic Candidate teachers in our classrooms. Welcome to Miss Simmons (Room 2), Miss Robertson (Room 7), Miss van Sluys (Room 6) and Miss Munro-Wallis (Room 5).

- I will stay focused on the job at hand. Excellence.
- I use my manners to show that I appreciate my school, teachers and other students. Pride.
- I deal with conflict positively. Spirit.

Keeping in Contact

It is really important that we have a phone number, especially when it is urgent or an emergency. Please complete this form or use School Stream to enter your current details.
