What is Coming Up?

Friday 30th September

An Invitation to Join Us....

This coming Friday is our Book Week Celebration Day. Students are busy thinking about what book character they can come dress up as.

Sausage sizzle is being provided by the Board of Trustees (no cost) and Mamas Donuts will be in for YOU to purchase.

This event will be on rail, hail or shine! Weather will determine our plan for the day.

Rain or Hail: Lunch will be in the hall as classroom groups- whānau can join tamariki there

Shine: Lunch will be together on the field.

TERM 4 - Hats, hats, hats

As term 4 is identified as a sunny term ALL learners are required to wear a BLUE school hat.

These can be purchased from the school office at $8 each.

Learners will have one weeks grace to get this sorted.

Any learner WITHOUT the CORRECT School HAT from Tuesday 25th October will be out of the playground during school break times and sports sessions.

Year 6 Intermediate School Enrolments!

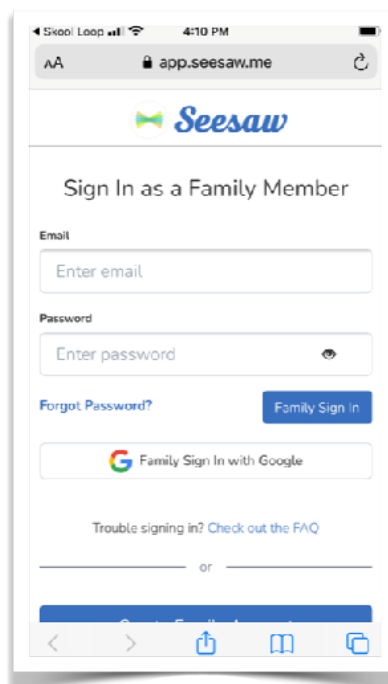

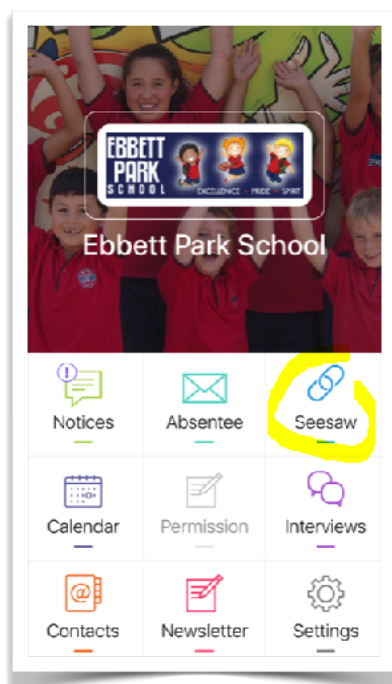

Now that our Year 6 students and whānau have had a chance to visit the various Intermediate Schools available to them it is time to get enrolments in. Some have cut off dates which are important NOT to miss.

If you need any help or support completing these documents please contact either Kate or Hamish.

Please DO NOT miss enrolment deadlines and this can cause a great deal of stress for our tamariki if they do not know where they are heading to next year.

Skool Loop Update...

The App has been updated! Your Seesaw parent portal is now linked to your app, making it easier for you to log in straight from Skool Loop.

HOLIDAY PROGRAMME INFORMATION

October Holiday Programme

Your budding marine biologist will be investigating five new science themes this holidays, spending time in the research lab, out in nature, and behind the scenes at the aquarium.

They will also be immersed in the world of art and science combined, with our "Ocean and I" art exhibition taking place throughout the whole month, showcasing over 30 national artists and their connection to the ocean through many different forms of art.

Monday – Hide and Seek

Today we will need our architecture and building skills!

We will be investigating why some animals live in shells, how do they carry their homes on their backs, and what would it be like for us to do the same? Also, why and how do some shells have patterns and colour, and why are some pointy and sharp, and some are smooth?

Tuesday – Bright and Shiny

Today we will need to show our true colours!

We will be investigating the world of colour, you will be transported to a rainbow coloured world, discovering the many patterns and colours used in the animal kingdom.

Wednesday – Teeny and Weeny

Today we will need your lab coat!

We will be investigating all things tiny in the ocean. What microscopic animals are there and how do they help our world?

Thursday – Dark and Light

Today we will need our torches and our sunglasses!

We will be investigating why and how some animals live in the dark and some live in the light, what special super powers do they all have?

Friday – Near and Far

Today we will need our super sight!

We will be investigating why some animals can see long distances, and how do they see through and in to water to catch their prey and avoid predators.
